To

Rajasevadhurina, Sirdar M. Kantaraj Urs Esquire,
B.A., C.S.I.,
Dewan of Mysore,
BANGALORE.

Through

The Financial Secretary to H.H. the Maharaja of Mysore, BANGALORE.

The humble memorialist most respectfully states as follows:

1. The original Manjarabad Palyam known as "Aigur" was conferred on our ancestor, Sarjappa Naik, by the Anegundi Raja and embraced a large tract of country.

The country was invaded by Hyder Ali who annexed the whole of it, excepting Manjarabad, which was left to the Palyegar on condition of his paying a tribute of Rs. 20,000/- annually. During the Mysore War Tippu Sultan annexed the Palyam for not helping him.

2. One Venkatadri Naik (1) was a Palyegar in Manjarabad, Hassan District, and he was enjoying a hereditary political pension of Rs.52-1-11 per month under the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore (Vide Geneological Table, herewith submitted)

3. Vencatadri Naik (2) and Ramaswamy Naik were the sons of the said Vencatadri Naik (1).

4. The said Vencatadri Naik (2) was, as representing the ~~second~~ Senior branch of his father's family, enjoying the said pension, subject to his contributing for the expenses of the family of Ramaswami Naik above named.

5. The said Vencatadri Naik (2) died in the year 1857 or thereabouts leaving a minor son by name Chikka Krishnappa Naik, the present petitioner.

6. Chikka Krishnappa Naik, the present petitioner, ~~on the death of his father should~~ on the death of his father, as representing the ~~second~~ Senior branch of the family, ~~should~~ have been registered as the holder of the pension. But the stipend was then registered in the name of the petitioner's uncle, Ramaswami Naik, as the petitioner was then a minor.

7. On the memorialist's attaining majority, the pension was divided and registered equally between the petitioner and his uncle at the request of the latter as he thought it more dignified to be himself a barawardar, than to be a dependent on the Sard. ~~maddar~~ the petitioner in question

8. The entire pension has since been enhanced by Government to Rs.78-2-10.

9. The said Ramaswami Naik, petitioner's uncle, died issueless on 15-3-1888 leaving behind him a widow by name Bhaskaramma.

10. On the death of the petitioner's uncle, the above baraward which was in his name should have been tranferred to the petitioner's name, subject to his contributing for the ~~maintaining~~ maintenance of the said Bhaskaramma, but, at the latter's request and out of respect for her feelings, the petitioner allowed the baraward to be transferred to her name from that of her husband.

11. The said Bhaskaramma died on 14-3-1918. The family of the said Ramaswamy Naik being extinct, the petitioner is now the sole and absolute claimant to the said pension.

12. On 28-3-1918, the petitioner applied to the Officer in charge of the State Huzur Treasury, Bangalore, for payment to him of the entire pension above named, but that Officer gave the accompanying endorsement to the petitioner.

13. The learned Treasury Officer mentioned above was wrong in thinking that on the death of Bhaskaramma, the pension in question had lapsed to Government.

14. As per G.O. No. 1678, dated 29-10-1887, the Palyegar's pensionS have been made hereditary.

15. Kind reference may also be made to G.O. No. C.488 dated 26-5-1888; the pension granted to Bhaskaramma was only a provisional arrangement and it should revert to the memorialist who is the rightful heir to the pension according to Hindu Law of Inheritance.

16. Kind reference may also be made to the Order passed by Sir James Gordon, Chief Commissioner, in 1880 regarding the question of lapses of pensions enjoyed by females.

17. The memorialist humbly ~~prays~~ prays, therefore, that early orders may graciously be passed directing the whole of the said pension to be paid in future to the memorialist and his successors in title.

18. The memorialist most respectfully prays further that his vakil may kindly be heard in the matter before final orders are passed on this humble memorial.

Offg. Comptroller to the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore.

To

M. N. Krishna Rao, ESQ., B.A.,
Secretary to the Government of Mysore,
Financial Department.

SIR,

With reference to your Official Memorandum No.Fl.3044/S&A. 59-19 of the 19th November last forwarding for enquiry and report the petition of Mr. Chikkakrishnappa Naik of the Manjarabad Pallegar family praying for the continuance of the Pallegar stipend drawn by the late Bhaskaramma, I have the honor to state as follows:-

(1) In Government Order No.C.488 of the 26th May 1888, the stipend of Rs.26-1-0 (subsequently raised to Rs.39-1-6 in the General revision) enjoyed by Ramaswami Naik was, after his death, granted to his widow Bhaskaramma for life. Bhaskaramma died issueless on the 14th March 1918 - Vide this office letter No.8 of the 23rd March 1918.

(2) Almost all the surviving members of the family claim this stipend as noted below:-

(a) Mr. Gopalkrishnasami Naik as per petitions of March 1918 and February 1919.

(b) Mr. M. Narasimha Naik and Mr. M. Venkataramanasami Naik as per petition of March 1919.

(c) ,, Chikkakrishnappa Naik.

(3) The Government Order quoted above in provisionally granting the the stipend to the late Bhakskaramma for life subject to approval by Government of the adoption for which she had asked permission at the time enjoined that the stipend should continue to be enjoyed by the second branch of the family. The first three applicants above-named being the grand-sons of Krishnappa Naik and the members of the first branch of the family have no right and title to the stipend in question. The required endorsements in reply have already been issued to them.

(4) The only other claimant to the stipend whose case deserves consideration is Mr. Chikka Krishnappa Naik who is the nephew of the deceased pensioner's husband Ramaswami Naik and thus belongs to the second branch of the family.

(5). The authorities quoted by the party in support of his claim are (1) Government Order No.1678 dated 29th October 1887 and (2) The Hindu Law of Inheritance, neither of which have any direct bearing on the claim. The Government order referred to dealt with the general question of the validity of adoption for the purpose of succession to the Palegar stipend. As regards the applicability or otherwise of the Hindu Law to Palegar stipends, it is seen from the records available that there does not appear to be any case in which a life pension granted to an issueless lady was continued to a relative. There is, besides, an endorsement given in reply in February 1877 to Komora Krishnappa Naik of the same family in connection with his claim to stipend originally drawn by Seshamma in these terms: "Under the rules in force, the stipend enjoyed by Seshamma lapsed to the State as the stipend granted to the female members to their lives only and cannot be renewed."

On these considerations, an endorsement was given to Mr. Chikka Krishnappa Naik that the stipend of Bhaskaramma cannot be continued to him.

(6) Since the stipend was granted to Bhaskramma for life and provision was made for the continuance of the stipend to the second branch of the family apparently in the expectation that some boy in that branch would be adopted and as the adoption was not

not made, the question arises whether the claim of Chikka Krishnappa Naik can be entertained. Whether it was the intention of Government who have recognised in para 2 of the Government Order of 26th May 1888 ~~1918~~ the right to the continuance of the pension in the second branch of the family to permit its being continued to the nearest of ~~this or~~ kin in that branch in the event of no adoption being made, or that it should in that case lapse to Government, is not known. Whether, in these circumstances, the pension granted to Baskaramma may be continued to Chikka Krishnappa Naik who is her nearest relation in the second branch is a point for the decision of Government. In this connection, I would invite kind reference to Government Order referred to above No.1678 dated 29th October 1887 in which the Government in disposing of the claim to stipend drawn by one Gangamma, widow of Doddakrishnappa Naik's son of the same family, observed in respect of the claim preferred by the same petitioner Mr. Chikka Krishnappa Naik and his uncle Ramaswami Naik that they had no claim to it as the adoption of a boy by Gangamma had been recognized, thereby implying that, but for her adoption, their claim would have been valid.

The petition received with the above is herewith returned.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

T. Satyanarayana

Comptroller.
